

Experience the Gullah Geechee Culture of the South Carolina Coast: Beaufort/St. Helena Island

Suggested Itinerary: Full Day

HALF DAY: Historic tours with professional step-on guide showcase the mansions, churches and ruins of the storied past of the small towns and sea islands.

Combine with a full-day itinerary in Bluffton or Hilton Head/Daufuskie for a complete two-day or three-day experience of the Gullah Geechee culture of the South Carolina Lowcountry.

Contact the Beaufort County Black Chamber of Commerce for free customized plan and booking.
843.986.1102 www.bcbcc.org

OPTIONAL HALF DAY: Visit during one of the many annual waterfront festivals such as the Gullah Christmas holiday weekend in December, Gullah Festival in May, Water Festival in July, Lands End Festival in September or Shrimp Festival in October when culinary delights entice while live entertainment and craft markets keep guests busy.

Lunch at one of Beaufort's or St. Helena's casual eateries featuring local farm-fresh produce and seafood directly from our docks.

HALF DAY: Visit the Penn Center Historic District, which includes Brick Baptist Church, The York W. Bailey Museum and other historic buildings on the campus observing its 150th anniversary. View the nearby ruins of Chapel of Ease and historic Fort Freemont.

Combine with a full-day itinerary in Bluffton or Hilton Head/Daufuskie for a complete two-day or three-day experience of the Gullah Geechee culture of the South Carolina Lowcountry.

Contact the Beaufort County Black Chamber of Commerce for free customized plan and booking.
843.986.1102 www.bcbcc.org

Visit Hunting Island, a 5,000-acre secluded barrier island of semitropical beauty with nature center, fishing pier, historic lighthouse inviting a climb and maritime beach welcoming a stroll.

Relax for an afternoon social hour and catered meal and be entertained by a storyteller or educational lecture.

Sleep tight in a modern full service marsh view Beaufort hotel and awake to hot Southern breakfast included daily.

Combine with a full-day itinerary in Bluffton or Hilton Head/Daufuskie for a complete two-day or three-day experience of the Gullah Geechee culture of the South Carolina Lowcountry.

Contact the Beaufort County Black Chamber of Commerce for free customized plan and booking.
843.986.1102 www.bcbcc.org